

Peripatetic Woodwind Teacher

JOB DESCRIPTION

- Be a proactive member of the Music Department with the Lead Music Teacher as line manager.
- Independently deliver high-quality woodwind small group lessons.
- Teach pupils, who will be new starters to the instruments.
- To actively work to recruit students to take part in lessons through the provision of taster sessions and demonstrations.
- Work with the Music teacher to organise and display timetables of lesson schedules, adhering to the School policy.
- Liaise with parents and lead music teacher regarding pupil progress.
- Prepare pupils for College concerts, festivals and competitions (as appropriate) and encourage pupils to take the available opportunities to develop all aspects of their performance.
- Promote the general progress and well-being of any pupil assigned.
- Act in the professional manner of a teacher, maintaining good order and discipline among the pupils and safeguarding their health and safety, both when they are authorised to be on the School premises and when they are engaged in authorised School activities elsewhere.
- Following the School's Safeguarding Policy, promote and safeguard the welfare of children and young persons for whom you are responsible and with whom you came into contact.
- Undertake such training as may be reasonably required by the School to properly adapt to the changing requirements of the School and the role or as may be necessary to fulfil the School's statutory or regulatory obligations.

PERSON SPECIFICATION

- A genuine love of working with children and young people.
- The ability to deliver high quality teaching on the full range of Woodwind instruments.
- An understanding of the technical challenges children and young people might encounter in instrumental development and the ability to work with students to provide the tools to overcome these challenges.
- Excellent communication skills.
- Experience planning and delivering successful small group instrumental lessons for children and young people within a school setting.
- A committed teacher, performer and team member.
- The ability to work to deadlines.